

Ashfield Valley Primary School—What are habitats?

Key vocabulary

Habitat—A habitat is where something lives. It has everything it needs to survive such as food, shelter and water.

Microhabitats— it is a small area which is unique to unique creatures.

Adaptations— What a plant or animal has to help it survive in its habitat.

Survive—This means to stay alive.

Useful websites

bbc.co.uk/bitesize/science

www.purplemash.com

www.educationcity.co.uk

woodland

arctic

Examples
of habitats.

desert

ocean

All animals and plants are adapted to their habitat.

